- Section 3.05 No shifts on the infield will be allowed, (i.e. 2nd baseman playing on the shortstop side of 2nd base, etc.). Infielders are to play in their positions as intended.
- Section 3.06 The defense will play 9 defensive players, 4 outfielders. No unassisted putouts by an outfielder except by catching a fly ball. Outfielders are to play their normal outfield positions. No moving outfielders onto the infield so that you have a wall of 8 infielders and no outfielders. Outfielders can throw a runner out at first base.
- Section 3.07 No player plays at the pitcher's position.
- Section 3.08 A player cannot play more than 2 innings per game in the same position, and a player can play a maximum of 4 innings per game on the infield (1B, 2B, 3B, SS, pitcher).
- Section 3.09 Every player must be given the opportunity to play an infield position during each game.
- Section 3.10 The dropped third strike rule is not played. On a dropped third strike the ball is dead and no runners may advance.
- Section 3.11 A batted ball that stops in the chalk circle around the pitching machine or strikes the pitching machine is a dead ball and the batter is awarded 1st base, all base runners are awarded one base. No player may field a ball in the chalk circle around the pitching machine.
- Section 3.12 Mandatory courtesy runner for the catcher with 2 outs. The player that made the last out is used as the courtesy runner. This applies to the player who will play catcher in your next defensive inning. This is so the catcher can have his equipment on and be ready to take the field.

Article IV. Base running

- Section 4.01 When a batted ball is fielded by an infielder and an overthrow is made, all base runners may advance one base on the overthrow at the risk of being put out. Once one overthrow has been made and the base runners have advanced one base, the base runners cannot advance any further no matter how many more overthrows may occur.
- Section 4.02 If a runner has passed the base when an outfielder attempts to make a throw (when the ball leaves his throwing hand), the runner may advance to the next base only and no further, at the risk of being put out. If a runner has not passed the base when an outfielder attempts to make a throw (when the ball leaves his throwing hand), the runner may advance to that base and no further.
- Section 4.03 No runner may advance on a throw to the coach/umpire.

Article V. Coaching - Bench and Field Conduct

- Section 5.01 Coaches are to feed the pitching machine for their own team. Coaches should have 3 4 baseballs to make the game move at a reasonable pace.
- Section 5.02 The base coaches are the umpires.
- Section 5.03 The coach feeding the machine should refrain from giving instructions to the batter. The only exception should be to instruct the batter to move off the plate to prevent the batter from being hit by a pitch.
- Section 5.04 The catcher is to field all balls thrown to home plate. The catcher must wear proper catcher's equipment. Coaches should stand by the backstop to the back of the batter to help retrieve balls in an effort to keep the game moving at a reasonable pace.
- Section 5.05 Win-loss records and standings are not kept for the 2nd Grade Division. Game results do not need to be reported to your Division Chairman.

Article VI. Postseason Tournament Rules

- Section 6.01 2nd Grade: No postseason tournament
- Section 6.02 3rd Grade: Will have a postseason tournament.
 - (a) Win-loss records and standings are kept for these leagues. Each coach must report the game results through their Team Snap account immediately following the game.

Note: coaches should confirm an accurate score with each other at the conclusion of the game.

- (b) The home team for each game will be determined by the team that has the better seed as result of input from the coaches at the end of the regular season to determine the seeds.
- (c) No time limit in the championship game.
- (d) Umpires will be provided.
- (e) Tournament game balls are provided by the league.
- (f) The home team for each game will be determined by the team that has the better seed as result of input from the coaches at the end of the regular season to determine the seeds.
- (g) No time limit in the championship game.
- (h) Umpires will be provided.
- (i) Tournament game balls are provided by the league.
